Every Day Poem by Ingeborg Bachmann. Autoplay next video. War is no longer declared, only continued. The monstrous has become everyday. The hero stays away from battle. The weak have gone to the front. The uniform of the day is patience, its medal the pitiful star of hope above the heart.

Every Day Poem by Ingeborg Bachmann - Poem Hunter

WHY I WRITE A POEM A DAY. In January of 2011, I had just had a baby and I wanted to savour those fleeting moments, but I didn't know how. Each day sloshed mind-numbingly into the next. In a desperate hunt to find more joy in my new routine, I pledged to write a poem every day that year to train myself to slow down and observe the world around me.
