American War Machine Deep Politics

American War Machine explains how one of the principal techniques of [commandeering power in the United States by secret, undemocratic means] has been the CIA's utilization of the drug traffic to combat communism, the governments and movements of the left, and, in our time, to maintain American supremacy in the world. . . . The demonstration is, one could say, stupefying. . . .

There are certain books that, once read, alter one's mind permanently. This is such a book. Naïve readers and patriots beware: You will never think about the world in the same way after you have read just the first two chapters of American War Machine. American War Machine is a study of what the author, Peter Dale Scott, calls deep politics. A Berkeley professor and poet, Scott has largely created his own vocabulary to analyze a political reality that seldom is studied systematically.
