'Dream A Little Dream' had the potential to be a book that oozed predictability and to a certain extent the story rounded off in the direction I expected. Nevertheless, the route the storyline took did take me by surprise and there were hiccups and unexpected twists towards the end of the novel that I didn't see coming and found refreshing and exciting.

I must say I did enjoy Dream a Little Dream by Sue Moorcroft. The characters were well written and interesting. Relationships can be difficult, in business and our personal lives, as we find with the main characters Liza and Dominic. Family life has a way of being supportive and interfering but at the end of the day its the love that binds us.
